Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse—a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them. “For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good.” I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro. I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled. I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the Lord, before his fierce anger. For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 14

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the Psalm

- 1 The fool has said in his heart, “There<sup>1</sup> is no<sup>1</sup> God.” *
All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is<sup>1</sup> none who does<sup>1</sup> any<sup>1</sup> good.
- 2 The LORD looks down from heaven up<sup>1</sup> on us<sup>1</sup> all, *
to see if there is any who is wise, if there is<sup>1</sup> one who<sup>1</sup> seeks after<sup>1</sup> God.
- 3 Every one has proved faithless;
all a<sup>1</sup>like have turned<sup>1</sup> bad; *
there is none who does<sup>1</sup> good;<sup>1</sup> no, not<sup>1</sup> one.
- 4 Have they no knowledge, all those<sup>1</sup> evil<sup>1</sup> doers *
who eat up my people like bread and do not<sup>1</sup> call up<sup>1</sup> on the<sup>1</sup> LORD?

5 See how they <sup>1</sup>tremble with <sup>1</sup>fear, *
because God is in the <sup>1</sup>company <sup>1</sup>of the <sup>1</sup>righteous.

6 Their aim is to confound the <sup>1</sup>plans of the <sup>1</sup>afflicted, *
but the <sup>1</sup>LÖRD <sup>1</sup>is their <sup>1</sup>refuge.

†7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come <sup>1</sup>out of <sup>1</sup>Zion! *
when the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will re<sup>1</sup>joice and <sup>1</sup>Israel be <sup>1</sup>glad.

Second Lesson: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 410 “Praise, my soul, the King of heaven”

Lauda anima

Gospel: Luke 15:1-10

Clergy      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, “This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

So he told them this parable: “Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

“Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’ Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

Clergy      The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

from Southern Harmony (1835)

*Tell me, where is the road
I can call my own,
That I left, that I lost
So long ago?
All these years I have wandered,
Oh when will I know
There's a way, there's a road
That will lead me home?*

*After wind, after rain,
When the dark is done,
As I wake from a dream
In the gold of day,*

*Through the air there's a calling
From far away,
There's a voice I can hear
That will lead me home.*

*Rise up, follow me,
Come away, is the call,
With the love in your heart
As the only song;
There is no such beauty
As where you belong;
Rise up, follow me,
I will lead you home.*

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28 In today's reading, true to his prophetic call, Jeremiah announces the devastating reality of God's judgment on the kingdom of Judah. God looks down upon the people and their land, and foresees the inevitable consequences of their evil ways. Judah will be destroyed because it replaced the covenant obligations of fidelity and obedience with idolatry, infidelity, apostasy, and disobedience. It forgot its first commandment obligation to center its life on God and instead organized life around objects which it thought it could control. Since the covenant has not been kept, God's destructive and punishing judgment is irrevocable.

Psalms 14 This lament psalm divides the world into two categories: the foolish and the wise. Although the foolish and wicked now persecute the wise and good, the psalmist envisions a time when God's judgment will make the appropriate rewards and punishments.

1 Timothy 1:12-17 This selection begins a seven-week series of readings from two letters traditionally attributed to St. Paul. 1 and 2 Timothy, along with Titus, are called the pastoral epistles because of their emphasis on the proper ordering of the administration and worship of the Church. Many scholars today believe that these letters were not written by Paul himself but by a later follower. Such an author may have pieced together some of Paul's personal letters and added material that presented oral Pauline teaching which addressed later situations. Today's reading is a thanksgiving for Paul's conversion, especially as it serves as a paradigm of God's mercy in the conversion of all "sinners." A phrase characteristic of Paul's emphasis on tradition is "the saying is sure" (v. 15) indicating a quotation from familiar teaching or hymns.

Luke 15:1-10 The two parables in today's reading make the same point. They answer those who criticized Jesus for having any dealings with the outcast and despised. It was a strong ancient principle, especially among the Pharisees, that one should not associate with sinners. "Sinners" were both those who led immoral lives and those whose occupations were considered sure to lead them into immorality — tax collectors, shepherds, etc. "Sinners" could not hold office or act as legal witnesses. Jesus turns this attitude around by using the unwearied search of a shepherd for a lost sheep or of a poor woman for a lost coin as an image for God's unchanging love toward the sinner. God's constant seeking-out of the lost is manifested in Jesus' redeeming ministry. God's love takes the initiative; the sinner's response is repentance. But rejoicing is the central note of these parables, for there is no mention of penitence.

Once you sign up to participate—no later than Sunday, October 2—the fellowship and membership committee chairs will form small groups of 8-10 people and distribute the list of members in your group in early October. A "first convener" will be designated as the first dinner host(s), where the group can then discuss how often to gather during the year.

You can sign up to participate on the sign-up sheets in the narthex, or on the St. Andrew's website (under the HAPPENINGS tab, click FELLOWSHIP). Thank you so much!

Vestry Nominating Committee

The St. Andrew's nominating committee is tasked every year to identify qualified candidates to serve on our parish vestry and its various committees. Vestry positions are nominated at our annual meeting on January 29, 2017. We meet regularly throughout the year to develop a list of candidates for the available openings. As thorough as the process may be, we are cognizant of the fact that there may be parishioners that may not come to mind, others with special talents they may possess don't come to our attention, or some that have aspirations to serve St. Andrew's in a committed role but have not made this known.

As we prepare our final list for review, we are asking parishioners to provide their input and offer their nominations accordingly; even if it is yourself. A list of available openings (January 2017) may be found on the St. Andrew's website under WELCOME and then VESTRY. Each vestry position also has its own committee and these committees are always looking for new members.

We will be gathering names through the end of September and are very appreciative of your suggestions. Please contact me.

Parishioner and Artist Emily Eveleth to speak at October Luncheon

The Fellowship Committee is pleased to announce that Emily Eveleth will join us for a presentation and discussion entitled So Much and More on Tuesday, October 11, noon to 2pm in the parish hall.

Emily is best known for her monumental paintings of doughnuts. These works have been noted for how they invest this unlikely subject with unexpected presence and character and the ability to shift across a spectrum of meanings, from visceral to profound. In this presentation she will talk about these works, how she began working with this unusual subject, and why it has captivated her for over 20 years.

Emily received her BA from Smith College and studied painting at the Massachusetts College of Art. Her work is in museum, corporate, and private collections including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Boston Public Library, and Wellington Management. Her work has been written about in Art in America, the New Yorker, and the New York Times. She has received grants from the Arts Matters Foundation, an NEA Fellowship for Painting, and was a visiting artist at the American Academy in Rome. She is represented by Danese/Corey in New York and the Miller/Yezerksi Gallery in Boston.
