Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and merciful God, it is only by your gift that your faithful people offer you true and laudable service: Grant that we may run without stumbling to obtain your heavenly promises; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4

The oracle that the prophet Habakkuk saw: O Lord, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not listen? Or cry to you "Violence!" and you will not save? Why do you make me see wrong-doing and look at trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. So the law becomes slack and justice never prevails. The wicked surround the righteous—therefore judgment comes forth perverted. I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart;

I will keep watch to see what he will say to me, and what he will answer concerning my complaint. Then the Lord answered me and said: Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time; it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it seems to tarry, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay. Look at the proud! Their spirit is not right in them, but the righteous live by their faith.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:137-144

William Best

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 137 You are <sup>1</sup>righteous, O <sup>1</sup>LORD, *
- 138 You have issued <sup>1</sup>your de<sup>1</sup>crees * with <sup>1</sup>justice and in <sup>1</sup>perfect <sup>1</sup>faithfulness.
- 139 My indig<sup>1</sup>nation has con<sup>1</sup>sumed me, * because my <sup>1</sup>enemies for<sup>1</sup>get your <sup>1</sup>words.
- 140 Your word has been <sup>1</sup>tested to the <sup>1</sup>uttermost, * and your <sup>1</sup>servant <sup>1</sup>holds it <sup>1</sup>dear.
- 141 I am small and of <sup>1</sup>little ac<sup>1</sup>count, *
yet I do <sup>1</sup>not for<sup>1</sup>get your com<sup>1</sup>mandments.
- 142 Your justice is an ever<sup>1</sup>lasting <sup>1</sup>justice * and your <sup>1</sup>läw <sup>1</sup>is the <sup>1</sup>truth.

143 Trouble and dis'tress have come up'on me, *
yet your com'mandments are my de'light.

144 The righteousness of your decrees is ever'lasting; *
grant me under'standing, that I may live.

Second Lesson: 2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of everyone of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 470 "There's a wideness in God's mercy"

Gospel: Luke: 19:1-10

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4 The dates of Habakkuk's ministry and his exact identity are unknown. The book has three parts: a dialogue between the prophet and God (1:2-2:5); a set of woes against the Babylonians (2:6-20); and a poem of trust (3:1-19). The book begins by describing a time when Judah was threatened by enemies from without and by moral and social corruption from within. Habakkuk struggles to understand God's ways and timing. He cries out about God's seeming toleration of injustice and violence. God explains that the Babylonians will be the instrument of God's judgment. Habakkuk then complains that, although Judah was corrupt, Babylon was even more unrighteous. How could a holy God send the wicked to devour God's chosen people? God answers, not in explanation, but in assurance; the time of full vindication will come. Meanwhile, the righteous shall "live by their faith" —not mere theological belief, but faithfulness, steadfastness and absolute trust.

Psalms 119:137-144 In this reading, taken from the longest psalm in the Bible, the psalmist gives praise to God for God's righteousness and describes the joys and difficulties that go with keeping God's law.

2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12 This reading is the first of three from 2 Thessalonians. Paul's stay in Thessalonica (Acts 17:1-10) was relatively brief, and he left the new congregation exposed to the attacks of local Jews and Gentiles. Timothy's encouraging report of their steadfastness in faith led Paul to write 1 Thessalonians (c. AD 51). Presumably, 2 Thessalonians was written a few months later in order to correct a misunderstanding of his teaching on the "day of the Lord" (1 Thessalonians 5:1-2). Paul reminds the Thessalonians of the need to give thanks, even in persecution, for God is increasing their faith and love. The reading then moves into a brief prayer for the community's sanctification through the cooperation of God's initiative in grace and of their human actions. Then Paul begins his further teaching on the return of Christ, which, apparently, some believed had already happened. This echoes Christ's own predictions of how people would use this confidence for personal gain. Paul discourages an alarmist mentality that disrupts the normal activities of life.

Luke 19:1-10 Jericho was a major trade center, and thus also a center for the collection of customs. Zacchaeus risks ridicule and perhaps violence out among the crowds. Jesus makes the decisive gesture of inviting himself to dinner, thus offering Zacchaeus a fellowship denied to him by others. Not in fulfillment of a rule, but in joyous and thankful response, Zacchaeus vows to give half his goods to the poor and to recompense generously those he might have defrauded.

Zacchaeus chooses the most extreme repayment penalty prescribed by the law. In answer both to him and to the murmurers, Jesus points out that even an outcast may receive and respond to “salvation,” the presence of the kingdom in the person and message of Jesus. Through his repentance and faith, Zacchaeus becomes a true son of Abraham, walking in the ways of his forefather.

Thanksgiving—Faith in Action

As our minds turn towards the Thanksgiving holiday, the St. Andrew's outreach committee invites you to show your thanksgiving in a practical way—putting your faith into action—by supporting two of the parish's major outreach partners who help local people in need: the Wellesley Food Pantry and Health Care Without Walls.

One way you can help is by purchasing men's white athletic socks, size L or XL which will be given to homeless people with diabetes by Health Care Without Walls.

Another way you can help is to purchase much needed items for the Wellesley Food Pantry. They have provided us with a short list of much needed items: coffee, sardines, beef stew, vegetable oil, canned salmon, and canned pineapple, as well as laundry detergent, diapers, and feminine care items (not food, but these items can't be purchased with food stamps and are always in demand).

During the month of November, we ask you to show your thanksgiving by purchasing these items and bringing them to the church on Sunday. There will be two special baskets at the back of the church where your gifts can be left—one marked "Sox Box" and the other "Wellesley Food Pantry." Every Sunday during November, we will have a special prayer of thanks at the offertory for the gifts that have been brought.

Creating a profile will only take a moment, and you will be able to make changes to your donations and view and print your online donation history. So, no need to worry if you forget your check-book! We hope you will take advantage of this convenient new feature on our website.

St. Andrew's Forum on Race

The election of an African-American as president of our country has not had the hoped-for result of ending racism. Indeed, the issue of race relations has become more prominent, particularly in the wake of incidents involving police and people of color. Even in our own town, some public actions by high school students have raised concerns.

We are pleased to announce that Michelle Chalmers, president of the World of Wellesley (WOW), an organization that works to make Wellesley welcoming to people of diverse backgrounds, will join us for a forum on the issue of race, how we can work to improve relations between races, and how we can become more aware of how racism affects our daily lives. Please join us on Sunday, November 13, at 11:30am in the Harvey Room for a chance to discuss the issue and our response as Christians. — Paul Merry • paul.merry@fairworkplace.net and Jane Andrews • jmlandrews@gmail.com

Field Trip to McMullen Museum: Stunning Manuscripts

This fall, 200 stunning medieval manuscripts are assembled in Boston for the first time in an exhibit called Beyond Words. On Sunday, November 13, at 3pm, we will gather for a private tour of the exhibit at Boston College's newly renovated McMullen Museum of Art. You can leave from St. Andrew's at 2pm, or meet us at the museum at 3pm. Dr. Lilian Armstrong, wife of parishioner Peter Ferguson, has written ten entries and two essays for this exhibit. We want to have the right number of guides for this tour, so please email me if you want to come.

Parish Photo Release

We recognize that safety and privacy are of primary concern to members of our congregation. After researching best practices and reaching out to our national church, the communications committee developed the following in the fall of 2013:

- A policy not to identify anyone by name in website photos,
- a policy to ask permission via phone or e-mail to use photos of individuals prominently featured in photos (though unidentified) on the website, and
- photo release language to be published in The CALL, service leaflets, and annual report.
- This language is as follows:

Occasionally, we may take photographs or videos of St. Andrew's-related activities. By appearing at and/or participating in any such activities, you are aware that you may appear in such pictures and agree to let us use such images in related communications (including print and web usage), and you agree to release St. Andrew's from any liability, damages, or claims whatsoever that might arise from such use. This notice also applies to any members of your family appearing and/or participating in such church activities. Our policy is that we will not identify anyone by name on website photos.

Gratitude

Photograph Directory

To all who helped welcome and guide parishioners as they had their photos taken for our new directory: thank you! Thanks to the over 150 parishioners and families who had their pictures taken over the last two months. Your cooperation will make the parish directory a useful tool. Many thanks to all the volunteers who helped with the second photographing session this week, and particularly to Nancy Hancock and Jenny Sawyer for their leadership. We can't wait to share the directory with our parish.

Week of Service

A special thanks to the many volunteers who helped make the Week of Service such a great success. The participation in both inreach and outreach activities throughout—the weekend especially—showed the energy and strength of our community. The sanctuary, Harvey Room, and our outdoor space have been thoroughly cleaned and tidied. The outdoor teams planted hundreds of bulbs and did tremendous work pruning trees and tidying flower beds.

Our crafting team made jewelery that will be sold at the Little Angels' Gift Shop in December, and our kitchen team prepared meals for the Salvation Army Miracle Kitchen and bread for the common cathedral. A big team of volunteers undertook a “deep cleaning” of the Wellesley Food Pantry, and another team participated in common cathedral, taking food and drinks with them and distributing them to the homeless on Boston Common. Volunteers also helped with the Oktoberfest party.

Oktoberfest

Danke vielmals to all those who helped to make the St. Andrew's Oktoberfest a very successful event! The dirndls and lederhosen, colorful decorations, beer tent and tastings, sing-alongs, and pretzel bar transformed the parish hall into an evening in München! Thank you to the following people who made it such fun, and truly a night to remember: Barbara Bergstrom, Jonathon Cohen, Jessica del Prete, Al & Zebby Dubé, Nancy & Allen Jones, Donna Kell, Margarethe Kulke, Jennifer Olivetti, Will Nystrom, Caren Parker, Tim & Kerrie Raeke, Sandy Rigney, Laura Rodormer, Jenny & Mark Sawyer, Michael & Kris Vanin, and Bill Wiberg. A special thank you to Lynda Sperry, who is definitely the hostess with the mostest. And, as always, it wouldn't be a party without the help of Steve Killeen.
