Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Isaiah 9:1-4

There will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian."

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Psalm 27:1, 5-13

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom then shall I fear? *
the LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom then shall I be afraid?
- 5 One thing have I asked of the LORD;
one thing I seek; * that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life;
- 6 To behold the fair beauty of the LORD *
and to seek him in his temple.
- 7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter; *
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high up on a rock.
- 8 Even now he lifts up my head *
above my enemies round about me.

- †9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with <sup>1</sup>sounds of great <sup>1</sup>gladness; *
- 10 Harken to my voice, O <sup>1</sup>LORD, when I <sup>1</sup>call; * have <sup>1</sup>mercy on <sup>1</sup>me and <sup>1</sup>answer me.
- 11 You speak in my heart and say, <sup>1</sup>“Seek my <sup>1</sup>face,” *
Your <sup>1</sup>face, LORD, <sup>1</sup>will I seek.
- 12 Hide not your <sup>1</sup>face <sup>1</sup>from me, * nor turn away your <sup>1</sup>servant <sup>1</sup>in dis<sup>1</sup>pleasure.
- 13 You have been my helper;
cast me <sup>1</sup>not a<sup>1</sup>way; *

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 1:10-18

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters.

What I mean is that each of you says, “I belong to Paul,” or “I belong to Apollos,” or “I belong to Cephas,” or “I belong to Christ.” Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power. For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Reader        The Word of the Lord.

People        Thanks be to God.

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali,
on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Isaiah 9:1-4 In today's reading, the prophet refers to "the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali" (v. 1), the land allocated to these two tribes of Israel in the region called Galilee. Because of its distance from the temple in Jerusalem and its proximity to foreign cultures, many Israelites regarded it as more susceptible to pagan influences. A scorned land, it also bore the brunt of enemy attacks from the north. It was situated near the large inland lake called the Sea of Galilee, later the Sea of Tiberius. Here, Isaiah describes God's grand reversal of human situations: the most despised will receive the greatest privilege; those living in spiritual darkness will enjoy the first glimmers of light. The results of God's glorious scheme will include freedom from enemies and the end of war.

Psalm 27:1, 5-13 The first part (vv. 1-6) of Psalm 27 is a song of trust that speaks of God in the third person. The second section (vv. 7-14) is a lament addressed to God in the second person. This latter section presents the situation of someone, unjustly accused, who is coming to the temple to seek the Lord's decision and offer sacrifice. He believes that the Lord's goodness will be made known in this life. The final verse of assurance is probably the priest's reply, speaking as an oracle of the LORD.

1 Corinthians 1:10-18 Paul takes up the first item on his agenda: the dissension in the Corinthian community and its manifestation in cliques. He appeals to the Corinthians to be of one mind and judgment, rather than divided into groups, each with its own label. Many suggestions have been made about the nature of the groups Paul mentions. Possibly, Paul's followers were the poorer members and Apollos's, the more educated. Cephas (also known as Peter) probably had not been to Corinth, but Jewish Christians might consider him their patron. The "Christ" party is most difficult to identify; they may have been those who claimed to have a special mystical relationship to Christ, or to possess special knowledge. Paul tactfully centers his criticisms on his own partisans. They have not been baptized in the name of Paul but in the name of Jesus Christ, to which name Paul has already appealed as the grounds for unity.

Matthew 4:12-23 Matthew's account of the beginning of Jesus' ministry includes Jesus' journey into Galilee, a statement of the meaning of Jesus' ministry, the call of the first disciples and a summary of Jesus' activity. The Isaiah citation in verses 15-16 was originally written in a context of messianic hope as Galilee faced conquest by the Assyrians in 732 B.C. This defeat for Israel meant that the native Israelites were exiled and foreign populations resettled there, thus allowing the region to be described as "Galilee of the Gentiles" (v. 4). In Jesus' time it was heavily influenced by non-Jewish culture and religion. Here Jesus announces that the long period of expectation is completed. The reign of God is a present reality but will only be realized fully in the age to come. The response he expects is repentance, literally turning around, and so a description of the entire reorientation of one's whole being as illustrated by the call of the first disciples.

Hotel Toiletries

For many years, on the fourth Tuesday of each month, St. Andrew's parishioners have prepared and served a meal to 75 people at the Salvation Army's Miracle Kitchen in Framingham. In addition to providing a healthy meal, we are going to start collecting hotel toiletries (soap, lotion, shampoo, and conditioner) that we will deliver to Miracle Kitchen monthly. Therefore, if you travel, it would be great if you could save the toiletries the hotel provides and bring them to St. Andrew's. There is a box at the back of the church where we will collect these items. The folks who come for the meal will very much appreciate being able to leave dinner with a toiletry kit. Thank you. — Timothy Phillips • timpillips59@yahoo.com

- mcvanin1@gmail.com

Revised Parish By-Laws Approved

The Standing Committee has approved a revised set of our parish by-laws. Three provisions were added/deleted in the approved version:

- Added language that would prevent two or more members of the same household or family from serving concurrently on the vestry.
- Deleted language that would allow the rector to name a non-voting, ex-officio member to the vestry for a one-year term. Since all vestry meetings are open to the parish, this language was not necessary to allow the rector to ask parishioners to participate in vestry discussions.
- Added language stating that any formal organizations connected to the parish (e.g., a St. Andrew's food pantry serving the community) must have charters declaring their purposes, defining their members, and describing their scope of action. While we currently do not have any such organizations, it was prudent to add this language, in case there are any changes in the future.

We will need to re-approve our revised parish by-laws at the annual meeting on Sunday, January 29. Please contact me with any questions. — Lynda Sperry
