Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 2:14a, 22-32

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know — this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him, ‘I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope. For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, ‘He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.’ This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Protect me, O God, for I take ¹refuge in ¹you; *
I have said to the LORD, “You are my Lord,
my ¹good a¹bove all ¹other.”
- 2 All my delight is upon the ¹godly that are ¹in the ¹land, *
upon those who are ¹noble a¹mong the ¹people.
- 3 But those who run after ¹other ¹gods *
shall ¹have their ¹troubles ¹multiplied.

- 4 Their libations of blood I will not offer; *
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- †9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
my body also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the grave; *
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Second Lesson: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Offertory Anthem Easter Anthem

William Billings (1746-1800)

The Lord is ris'n indeed, Hallelujah.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. Hallelujah.

And did He rise? Hear, O ye nations, hear it, O ye dead.

He rose, He burst the bars of death, He burst the bars of death and triumph'd o'er the grave.

Then I rose, then first humanity triumphant passed the crystal ports of light, and seiz'd eternal youth.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

Acts 2:14a, 22-32 In the Easter season, following an ancient tradition, a reading from the Acts of the Apostles is used as the first reading. The book of the Acts recounts the early growth of the Church. One of the major features of Acts is Luke's use of speeches by the principal figures, providing reflection on and analysis of events. Today's reading is taken from the first of these discourses, in which Peter addresses the crowd on the Day of Pentecost. The account stresses the providence of God in the disposition of these events. In the paradoxical fate of the Messiah, human freedom and divine necessity are intertwined. Humanity's act of rejection is reversed by God's act of affirmation. Then Peter uses citations from the Old Testament to show that Jesus is the Messiah. Of the events foretold in the scripture, the apostles themselves were eyewitnesses.

Psalms 16 This song of trust in God seems to be set in a context where some Israelites worship other gods (v. 4). The speaker may be a Levite (vv. 5-6) for, when the lands of Israel were parceled out by lots shaken in a cup, the Levites' allotted inheritance was the cultic service of God.

Though the psalm is one of supplication, the petition itself takes only one half of a verse (v. 1). The remainder of the prayer is a meditation on the reasons the psalmist can turn to God in this time of need. Some scholars believe this psalm to be written by a foreigner in Israel, who has put his faith in Israel's God.

1 Peter 1:3-9 Throughout the Easter season, the second reading is taken from 1 Peter, written to the Christians of Asia Minor who were facing persecution for their faith. The bulk of 1 Peter is not like a letter in form or style, but more like a sermon given at a baptism. Some have even suggested that it is the text for the Easter baptismal liturgy. Today's reading is a prayer of thanksgiving for God's opening to believers a rebirth and new life through the resurrection of Jesus. This life is lived in the hope of an inheritance kept in heaven (v. 4). The Christian is guarded now even in trial, sustained by the faith of those who have not seen.

John 20:19-31 The first appearance of the risen Lord to the disciples stresses Jesus' fulfillment of the promises that he made in the long farewell address at the Last Supper in chapters 14-17. Thomas will not accept the Easter proclamation on the word of others but wishes to experience the risen Christ directly. Yet he can still penetrate the meaning behind the marvel and make a full affirmation of Christian faith. He consummates the sequence of titles given to Jesus by giving him the ultimate title, God. Verses 30-31 serve as a conclusion to the gospel. They evaluate the content of the gospel, inviting all to understand the meaning of Jesus' life, death and resurrection and, through belief, to share in a saving relationship with him.

Why Socks

Having recently experienced the solemnity of our Maundy Thursday Service, I would like to tell you that the feet of the poor and homeless that Roseanna Means, M.D. serves, are far from beautiful. Yet, she sits humbly on the floor, always lower than her clients, holding their feet. She tenderly washes the feet, clips the nails, and dresses the all too common suppurative diabetic sores. She touches, massages, and treats the weary feet and feeds the soul. Lastly, she offers her clients a pair of new white socks. Through the generosity of St. Andrew's parishioners, 6,050 pairs of socks have been donated to Health Care Without Walls since 2007. Our second yearly donation will take place in mid-June. Please continue your support of the ministry by:

- Placing socks in the SOX BOX located outside the library.
 - Sending a check to St. Andrew's for any amount (with a note in the MEMO: Sox). This will be noted in your church statement.
