Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 The <sup>1</sup>LORD is my <sup>1</sup>shepherd; *
I shall not <sup>1</sup>be in <sup>1</sup>want.
- 2 He makes me lie <sup>1</sup>down in green <sup>1</sup>pastures * and <sup>1</sup>leads me be <sup>1</sup>side still <sup>1</sup>waters.
- 3 He re <sup>1</sup>vives my <sup>1</sup>soul *
and guides me along right <sup>1</sup>pathways for his <sup>1</sup>Näme's <sup>1</sup>sake.
- 4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall <sup>1</sup>fear no <sup>1</sup>evil; *
for you are with me;
your <sup>1</sup>rod and your <sup>1</sup>staff, they <sup>1</sup>comfort me.
- 5 You spread a table before me in the presence of <sup>1</sup>those who <sup>1</sup>trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil, and my <sup>1</sup>cup is <sup>1</sup>running <sup>1</sup>over.
- 6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the <sup>1</sup>days of my <sup>1</sup>life, *

Second Lesson: 1 Peter 2:19-25

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Clergy        The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People        Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Acts 2:42-47 Peter concludes his sermon with the proclamation that the crucified Jesus has been exalted as Lord and Messiah. Now the saving name is Jesus Christ. In response to the plea of the crowd, Peter outlines the way of salvation. The first step is repentance (Greek, metanoia, meaning "change of heart, conversion"). The second step is baptism "in the name" (v. 38) that brings salvation. Those who submit to repentance and baptism receive forgiveness and the gift of the Holy Spirit, who provides the fundamental principle of life in the Christian community. Christian life together is characterized by common sharing of goods, daily prayer in the temple and breaking bread "with glad and generous hearts" (v. 46).

Psalm 23 This psalm is probably the most familiar and popular psalm of all. It celebrates God's loving care for us under the guise of a good shepherd who provides food, security and protection from all dangers. God guides us on our journey through life so that we might "dwell in the house of the Lord."

1 Peter 2:19-25 The author recognizes that living our faith is often difficult since we continue to live in a world that does not acknowledge God's sovereignty. We are called to the patient endurance of unjust suffering, for that is the example given by Christ. But Christ's endurance of suffering is not only exemplary, it is redemptive. The fact and consequence of atonement are stated but not explained.

As God was called Shepherd in the Old Testament, so is Jesus. The language of shepherd and flock also became standard terminology for describing those ministering within the Church.

John 10:1-10 John 10:1-21 serves as a transition from the Feast of Tabernacles and its theme of light (chaps. 7–9) to the Feast of the Dedication of the Temple, Hanukkah, which closes the series of feasts used as the context for Jesus’ teaching. This passage, based on Ezekiel 34, is a figurative attack on the leaders of Israel. John’s identification of Jesus as shepherd and gate is similar to the synoptic gospels’ portrayal of Jesus’ ministry in terms of shepherding. In Luke 15:3-7, the parable of the lost sheep is told in response to the Pharisees’ lack of care for the outcast. The Pharisees’ inability to accept Jesus’ challenge provokes further teaching. Jesus is “the gate” (v. 7), the way the true shepherd approaches the sheep and the way the sheep go in and out. Jesus provides freedom, refuge from sin, true sustenance and life itself.
