People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses said: The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die." Then the LORD replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.”

Reader      The Word of the Lord.
People      Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Hallelujah!
I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, *
in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.
- 2 Great are the deeds of the LORD! *
they are studied by all who delight in them.
- 3 His work is full of majesty and splendor, *
and his righteousness endures for ever.
- 4 He makes his marvelous works to be remembered; *
the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
- 5 He gives food to those who fear him; *
he is ever mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He has shown his people the power of his works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice; *
— all his commandments are sure.
- 8 They stand fast for ever and ever, *
because they are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption to his people;
he commanded his covenant for ever; *
holy and awesome is his Name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; *
those who act accordingly have a good understanding;
his praise endures for ever.

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 8:1-13

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him.

Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.” Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as in fact there are many gods and many lords—yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. “Food will not bring us close to God.” We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

Reader        The Word of the Lord.

People        Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 453 “As Jacob with travel was weary one day”

Jacob’s Ladder

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Deuteronomy 18:15-20 Today's passage describes the role of the prophet to make known God's will, a role distinct from the fortune telling, communication with the dead and divination practiced by pagans. This passage validates prophetic practice by telling of the establishment by Moses of a succession of prophets to mediate as he did between God and the people. A criterion is established to aid in distinguishing the true prophet from the false. In the postexilic period, when prophetic activity ceased, the statement about the raising of "a prophet like me" (v. 15) was interpreted as the promise of a "prophet like Moses" to come in the last days. The early Church saw this fulfilled in Jesus.

Psalms 111 Psalm 111 is a psalm of praise, celebrating God's presence in the history of God's covenant relationship with Israel. The psalmist recites a brief history of God's actions as clues to God's character.

1 Corinthians 8:1-13 In this reading, Paul discusses the guiding principle for resolving misunderstandings among Christians about participation in non-Christian culture. Most of the meat sold in the marketplace came from animals offered for sacrifice in pagan temples, and many social groups met for dinner in pagan shrines, though this did not necessarily involve recognition of the god. Christians in Corinth were divided on the issues of eating such meat or going to such dinners. Some felt that there was no harm in it. Paul quotes several of their slogans with which he in theory agrees. They claim a knowledge that justifies their freedom from constraint. The "weak" (v. 9), however, avoid such meat and such occasions out of a fierce desire to follow the law. They are upset by the actions of their fellow-Christians. They may be Jewish Christians still influenced by the prohibition of such meat, or they may be Greek Christians still influenced by their pagan past. Paul claims that the "strong" are correct in their knowledge of the issue, but deficient in their love for fellow believers. For Paul the gospel means freedom from servitude to the law, the world and Satan, but freedom exercised in love. Charity to one's fellow-Christians takes first place.

Mark 1:21-28 Jesus' teaching in the synagogue and freeing a person possessed by a demon in the synagogue illustrate the nature of Jesus' message. Mark emphasizes Jesus' activity as teacher, but in contrast to Matthew and Luke, he gives less of the content of Jesus' teaching. Rather, he stresses Jesus' effective, powerful authority. One manifestation of this authority is Jesus' exorcism of an unclean spirit. Mark does not tell miracle stories for the sake of arousing awe. He tells them to give witness to the meaning of Jesus' presence. In the Old Testament, the title Holy One is used preeminently of God, but the same words are also applied to humans. As applied to Jesus, the term takes on the meaning of one who uniquely reveals the power of God. In the first half of this gospel (1:1–8:26), Jesus teaches in veiled language (4:11), through action and parable. The authority of his "new teaching" (v. 27) is seen in its effect upon others. The description Matthew gives of the crowd's reaction to the Sermon on the Mount (see Matthew 7:28) is in Mark their response to Jesus' total self-presentation. Jesus' authority is manifested in his deeds and words. His destiny is one of obedience to his Father, not one of status.
