Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Numbers 21:4-9

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

Richard Farrant

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, *
and his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let all those whom the LORD has redeemed proclaim *
that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
- 3 He gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- 17 Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; *
they were afflicted because of their sins.
- 18 They abhorred all manner of food *
and drew near to death's door.
- 19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, *
and he delivered them from their distress.
- 20 He sent forth his word and healed them *
and saved them from the grave.
- 21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.
- 22 Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and tell of his acts with shouts of joy.

Second Lesson: Ephesians 2:1-10

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

People      Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 3:14-21

Clergy      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. “Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

Clergy      The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship\_reading.html

Numbers 21:4-9 This reading describes the incident that the evangelist John uses to understand the healing power of Christ's death on the cross. For their lack of faith in God's power to provide food for them on their wilderness journey, the people are punished by poisonous serpents. When the people admit their sinfulness and seek God's forgiveness through Moses' intercession, God provides an outward sign—the bronze serpent—that when looked upon unleashed God's life-giving power.

Psalms 107:1-3, 17-22 This psalm encourages those whom God has rescued to give praise (vv. 1-3). Verses 17-22 recall God's healing in time of illness.

Ephesians 2:1-10 This letter was probably first circulated as an encyclical letter to a number of churches in Asia Minor. Chapter 1 centers upon the privileges of the believer's new life in Christ. Today's reading focuses on the process of restoration. God alone takes the initiative. In verses 8-10, there is a double aspect to salvation. It begins with "grace" (v. 5) and results in "good works" (v. 10). Faith is here a gift from God, not something we do. Works are required, but not as a prerequisite. The living out of the Christian life is not the cause of salvation, but its effect. Faith must always lead to good works.

John 3:14-21 Today's reading is taken from the first of John's lengthy expositions of Jesus' teachings. This discourse as a whole (3:1-21) moves from the work of the Spirit (3:3-8) to that of the Son (3:11-15) to that of the Father (3:16-21). Nicodemus comes to Jesus by night because of his interest in the signs Jesus has performed. Jesus seeks to draw him past these outward manifestations to a recognition of their inward significance. The lifting up of the Son of Man points to his exaltation on the cross and in the resurrection and ascension; for John, these are one single act of glorification, offering believers eternal life by participation in God's life. Verse 16, one of the most familiar verses of scripture, succinctly describes God's goal—to offer eternal life, God's motivation—love for the world, and God's strategy—giving the Son. Jesus has become the watershed for life, both now and in the future. Those who reject Jesus face condemnation in the day of judgment, and they live now in darkness and fear. Those who believe “in the name of the only Son of God” (v. 18) have escaped future condemnation, enjoy the promise and reality of eternal life, and live in light and truth.

Gratitude

Lenten Choral Evening

Many thanks to our music minister, Wardie Mannix, and the senior choir for the wonderful choral evensong last Sunday, March 4. The beauty of the music touched all our souls. In particular many people commented on the sublime Agnus Dei set to music by Samuel Barber. We all marveled at the talent of Wardie and the choir to take on such a complex and moving piece with so many parts. We are blessed to have such a dedicated and talented choir and music director.

Evensong Reception

Many thanks to Wendy Haering and Margaret Zusky for organizing the lovely reception following the evensong last Sunday. Thanks also to those who brought delicious appetizers and helped with the set up and take down. The parish hall was happily crowded with folks who came to enjoy company and lovely food after the fabulous service.
