Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, your never-failing providence sets in order all things both in heaven and earth: Put away from us, we entreat you, all hurtful things, and give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

David Hurd

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 LORD, you have searched me¹out and¹known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you dis¹cern my¹thoughts from a¹far.
- 2 You trace my¹journeys and my¹resting-places *
and are ac¹quainted with¹all my¹ways.
- 3 Indeed, there is not a¹word on my¹lips, *
but you, O LORD, ¹know it¹alto¹gether.
- 4 You press upon me be¹hind and be¹fore *
and¹lay your¹hand up¹on me.
- 5 Such knowledge is too¹wonderful for¹me; *
it is so¹high that I¹cannot at¹tain to it.
- 12 For you yourself created my¹inmost¹parts; *
you knit me to¹gether in my¹mother's¹womb.

13 I will thank you because I am ¹marvelously¹ made; *
your works are wonderful,¹ and I¹ know it¹ well.

14 My body was not¹ hidden from¹ you, *
while I was being made in secret
and¹ woven in the¹ depths of the¹ earth.

15 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
all of them were¹ written in your¹ book; *
they were fashioned day by day,
when as¹ yet¹ there was¹ none of them.

16 How deep I find your¹ thoughts, O¹ God! *
how¹ grät¹ is the¹ sum of them!

17 If I were to count them, they would be more
in¹ number than the¹ sand; *
to count them all, my life span would¹ need to¹ be like¹ yours.

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 4:5-12

We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

Gospel: Mark 2:23-3:6

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One Sabbath Jesus and his disciples were going through the grain fields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward." Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

I hear the real, tho' far-off hymn
That hails a new creation;*

*No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to that rock I am clinging;
Since love is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?*

I hear the music ringing;
It sounds an echo in my soul
How can I keep from singing?*

I hear the truth it liveth;
What tho' the darkness round me close?
Songs in the night it giveth.*

About the Readings

From Preparing for Sunday http://standrewswellesley.org/worship_reading.html

1 Samuel 3:1-10 First Samuel focuses on the man who ushered Israel through the political transition from judges to kings. Samuel united in himself many of the roles of the tribal confederacy period of Israel's history. He was a Nazirite dedicated to the Lord, a judge, a prophet, a priest and the reluctant leader of the movement to place a king over Israel. Today's reading recounts the call of Samuel in the temple at Shiloh. Shiloh was at that time the resting place for the ark, the throne for the divine presence on earth. The setting in the temple and the time, probably just before dawn since the lamp was to burn all night, are traditional for divine revelation.

Psalms 139:1-5, 12-17 This is a prayer for deliverance. The psalmist puts his trust in the all-knowing and ever-present God who has known him thoroughly and intimately since his conception. The psalmist invites further examination and cleansing.

2 Corinthians 4:5-12 Paul defends his apostolic ministry against opponents in the Corinthian Church. He, apparently, had been accused of self-glorification (3:1, 5:12); he replies that he preaches to make God known. He summarizes Christian belief in "Jesus Christ as Lord" (Rom. 10:9, 1 Cor. 12:3), a statement of trust and obedience rather than doctrine, and he summarizes Christian ministry as service to others for Jesus' sake (1 Cor. 3:5-9, 9:19). The God of creation (Gen. 1:3) is now manifested in the new creation through Christ. The light of Christ is unfading, in contrast to the fading light of the law (3:7-11). It now shines in the hearts of believers, gradually changing them into Christ's likeness (3:18). But the treasure of this good news is carried by lowly and fragile vessels. Paul contrasts his suffering to the boasts of his opponents; it is not power or special insights, but suffering that truly reveals Jesus, the crucified one.

Mark 2:23-3:6 Today's reading about plucking grain on the sabbath (Mt. 12:1-8; Lk. 6:1-5) continues the set of controversy stories begun in 2:1. Whereas gleaning in a neighbor's field was permitted in general (Dt. 23:24), the harvesting of grain on the sabbath was prohibited (Ex. 34:21), which seems to be the basis for the Pharisees' question. Characteristically, Jesus replies with a counter-question also based on scripture. He refers to a story about David (1 Sam. 21:1-6), which illustrates the breaking of a practice in an emergency situation--for David, pursuit by enemies; for Jesus, the in-breaking of the kingdom of God. Humankind takes precedence in the order of creation over the sabbath (Gen. 1:26, 2:2). The sabbath was made for the benefit of humankind (Ex. 23:12; Dt. 5:14). Verse 28 makes it clear that "the Son of man" has authority over the sabbath. Jesus' use of the term "Son of man" forces his hearers to decide for themselves what he means--whether it is simply 'a typical human being' (as in Ezekiel), or 'the One to come' prophesied in Dan. 7:13 (which was later taken to refer to the Messiah), or something else. The concluding story of Jesus healing a man with a withered hand on the sabbath forms a dramatic capstone for this teaching, placing human thriving at the center of the Law, and ensuring that Jesus is now on a collision course with the Pharisees and other authorities.
