

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Nativity of Our Lord December 24, 2019 3pm

We are eager to engage all ages in this special worship service for children and their families. Feel free to move around the church with your children, as needed. If it is helpful, please make use of our childcare room downstairs.

Hymn 87 "Hark! the herald angels sing"

Mendelssohn

Collect for Christmas Eve

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Together we pray:

People Heavenly Father, the night sky shines with the Light of your Son, Jesus Christ. He was born as one of us and laid in a manger, and now His love shines through the whole world. We ask that you bring the love of Jesus into our hearts, and make it shine in us, this day and always. Amen.

Hymn 101 "Away in a manger"

Cradle Song

Gospel Reading: Luke 2:1-14

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Procession to the Crèche

During the hymn, all who have chosen an animal are invited to place their animals in the crèche, and then come to the altar for the children's homily.

Prayers of the People

Priest Holy God, we thank you for our parents and caregivers. Help them when they are in need of strength and support, and help us to show our love to them. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Priest We thank you for our grandparents and other family members. Help us to show our gratitude for their wisdom and generosity. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Priest We ask you to bless all children throughout the world. We thank you for our brothers and sisters, and for our friends. Help us to remember and care for those children who do not have families to be with this Christmas. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Priest We remember in our prayers all those who are sick or suffering. Help all those who tend to them, and give them comfort in their time of need. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Priest Tonight is Christmas Eve. Help us celebrate the birth of Jesus, your Son, as we pray for peace and joy throughout the world. May your light shine in the darkness this day and always. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
