Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, your never-failing providence sets in order all things both in heaven and earth: Put away from us, we entreat you, all hurtful things, and give us those things which are profitable for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 LORD, you have searched me<sup>1</sup>out and<sup>1</sup>known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you dis<sup>1</sup>cern my<sup>1</sup>thoughts from a<sup>1</sup>far.
- 2 You trace my<sup>1</sup>journeys and my<sup>1</sup>resting-places * and are ac<sup>1</sup>quainted with<sup>1</sup>all my<sup>1</sup>ways.
- 3 Indeed, there is not a<sup>1</sup>word on my<sup>1</sup>lips, *
but you, O LORD,<sup>1</sup>know it<sup>1</sup>alto<sup>1</sup>gether.

- 4 You press upon me be<sup>h</sup>ind and be<sup>f</sup>ore * and<sup>l</sup>ay your<sup>l</sup>hand up<sup>l</sup>on me.
- †5 Such knowledge is too<sup>l</sup>wonderful for<sup>l</sup>me; * it is so<sup>l</sup>high that I<sup>l</sup>cannot at<sup>l</sup>tain to it.
- 12 For you yourself created my<sup>l</sup>inmost<sup>l</sup>parts; * you knit me to<sup>l</sup>gether in my<sup>l</sup>mother's<sup>l</sup>womb.
- 13 I will thank you because I am<sup>l</sup>marvelously<sup>l</sup>made; * your works are wonderful,<sup>l</sup>and I<sup>l</sup>know it<sup>l</sup>well.
- 14 My body was not<sup>l</sup>hidden from<sup>l</sup>you, *
while I was being made in secret and<sup>l</sup>woven in the<sup>l</sup>depths of the<sup>l</sup>earth.
- 15 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
all of them were<sup>l</sup>written in your<sup>l</sup>book; *
they were fashioned day by day, when as<sup>l</sup>yê<sup>l</sup>t there was<sup>l</sup>none of them.
- 16 How deep I find your<sup>l</sup>thoughts, O<sup>l</sup>God! * how<sup>l</sup>grêat<sup>l</sup>is the<sup>l</sup>sum of them!
- 17 If I were to count them, they would be more in<sup>l</sup>number than the<sup>l</sup>sand; *

Second Lesson: 2 Corinthians 4:5-12

We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

Gospel: Mark 2:23-3:6

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One sabbath Jesus and his disciples were going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward." Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Edith Stein

October 12, 1891–August 9, 1942

From childhood, Edith Stein was a brilliant scholar. She earned her doctorate at age 25, studying under philosopher Edmund Husserl. Although she was an avowed atheist as a teenager, she became captivated by the writings of St. Teresa of Avila when she reached adulthood. Seeking to follow St. Teresa's example, she became a Catholic. At that point, she wanted to be a nun but was dissuaded by her spiritual mentor. She then taught at a Catholic school of education in Speyer, Germany.

Edith translated several important philosophical works and wrote commentaries on them which led to her giving lectures to large audiences. With Hitler's rise to power, and the requirement of an "Aryan certificate" for civil servants in April 1933, she had to quit her teaching position and her public influence came to an end because of her Jewish heritage. Her spiritual advisers finally allowed her to enter the Carmel at Cologne. As a Carmelite, she assumed the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross.

In 1938, she was transferred, along with her biological sister Rosa, by then also a convert and an extern, to another Carmelite community in Holland to escape persecution. But in 1942, all baptized Catholics of Jewish origin (244 of them) in Holland were arrested by the Gestapo on August 2, 1942. She and her sister were sent to the Auschwitz concentration camp and were murdered in the Birkenau gas chambers on August 9, 1942.

Her feast day is August 9.

Each finite creature can reflect only a fraction of the divine nature; thus, in the diversity of His creatures, God's infinity, unity and oneness appear to be broken into an effulgence of manifold rays.

Church School Classes this Sunday

This is the last church school class day for this year. We look forward to seeing your children again beginning Sunday, September 8. Please look for information regarding registering for classes at the end of August.

This Sunday's arrangements are:

- Kids' Place downstairs across from choir room.
- Godly Play I pre-K to first grade meet in the children's chapel which is adjacent to the church sanctuary.
- Godly Play II grades two and three meet in Room 201 (formerly known as the Rite-13 room).
- Upper School/Way of Love grades four and five meet in Room 204. Rite-13, grades six and seven, meet in Room 202.

All teachers, parents, and children are welcome to gather in the playground for celebratory refreshments after the service.

Help the Memorial Rose Garden

We are looking for people to help keep the memorial rose garden in tip top shape this summer. Tasks include deadheading spent roses, watering, and weeding. If you can help during any part of the summer (June through August), please contact Wardie Mannix.

Prayer List

Our parish prayer list has grown and is too long to read out at every Sunday service. From now on, we will split the list into two halves, and rotate reading each half Sunday by Sunday. The full list will be printed each week in the e-Pistle. Please contact Adrian by Wednesday, June 5 to let him know if your loved one remains on the prayer list.

Worship with common cathedral

Please join us in outreach to unhoused people in Boston by serving lunch and worshipping at common cathedral. We are looking for a few more parishioners to join the fellowship today, June 2, and Sunday, August 11. The ministers for this effort are especially appreciative of our support in the summer when many donors are away. Can you make bag lunches at home or in the St. Andrew's kitchen? Sign up on Realm or contact Cam McCormick or Scott Jones.

5pm Sunday Services

There will be NO 5pm Sunday Service on June 9 due to a clergy conflict. The last 5pm service before the summer break will be on Sunday June 16. The 5pm service will resume on Sunday, September 8 which is Homecoming Sunday.

9am Christian Learning

We have had a soul-stretching year together. Please join us next September when we begin next term's classes.

Do you have an idea for a class? Please share your idea or question with Carrie Hawley, our chair of adult formation, or with me. — Rev. Margaret Schwarzer

B-SAFE Summer 2024 is Coming!

During the week of July 29 to August 2, we will be hosting the St. Stephen's B-SAFE week. We will be providing 60 grocery bags of food for St. Stephen's Youth Program families. We will need volunteers Monday through Wednesday, July 29 to 31, to prepare bags to deliver to St. Stephen's.

Save the date of Friday, August 2, for the fun summer field trip at St. Andrew's, starting with games, karaoke, origami, and crafts. Volunteers needed, no experience necessary—kids and adults welcome—to make this day possible. The kids will pack their own picnic lunch from grab-and-go options and take the bus to a state park for an afternoon of swimming.

Look for the signup in Realm. 2024 is our 25th summer of involvement with SSYP: let's make it our best ever! Contact Karen Pekowitz or Cam McCormick

Confirmation Class Dates

Next program year, we are trying something new: confirmation classes will take place every Monday (except on holiday weekends) from 4:30 to 5:30pm starting Monday, September 9 through January. After school snacks will be provided. My hope is that this weekday schedule will provide greater continuity and will also ease pressure on families. Your child is welcome to come right over to church as soon as their school day is finished.

Interested children (in grade eight or higher) who are unable to meet on Monday afternoons may make an alternative confirmation preparation plan. Please see or email Sarah Robbins-Cole to discuss.

Youth Choir!

We are exploring the possibility of restarting our youth choir this fall. The specifics will be worked out when we know how many families are willing to commit to the program.

Our bass section leader, Benedict Hensley, is excited to direct children from second grade to sixth grade and will prepare them to sing monthly in our services. If there are several younger children (pre-K to first grade) who would like to participate, we will plan a choral program for them as well! The plan is to have a weekly practice possibly on a Monday late afternoon coupled with a light supper (if there is interest).

For more information, please see or email Benedict Hensley, Wardie Mannix or Sarah Robbins-Cole.

Soul Sisters

New this fall! Church school committee members have felt called to deepen their spiritual lives in study and prayer. To foster this development, the church school committee has decided to participate in the already established national program of Soul Sisters.

The national mission statement for Soul Sisters is as follows:

Soul Sisters is a Christ-centered ministry that encourages women across the county to grow in their faith through prayer and studying God's Word both on line and on land. Our hope is that every woman in this group will know Christ in such a way, that His light will shine in them and through them for all the world to see.

Although this began as an idea from the church school, the church school committee would like to invite any women who feel that they are in need of spiritual sustenance to help face the challenges of caring for others and us. For more information, please see Heather Shaefer, Susan Jackson, or Sarah Robbins-Cole.
