Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Genesis 15:1-12,17-18

The word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." But the word of the Lord came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Then he said to him, "I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess." But he said, "O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?" He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates."

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Psalm 27:1, 5-11

Richard Farrant (c.1530-1581)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom then shall I fear? *

the LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom then shall I be afraid?

5 One thing have I asked of the LORD;
one thing I seek; * that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life;

- 6 To behold the fair<sup>1</sup> beauty<sup>1</sup> of the<sup>1</sup> LORD * and to<sup>1</sup> seek him<sup>1</sup> in his<sup>1</sup> temple.
- 7 For in the day of trouble he shall keep me<sup>1</sup> safe<sup>1</sup> in his<sup>1</sup> shelter; *
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me<sup>1</sup> high up<sup>1</sup> on a<sup>1</sup> rock.
- 8 Even now he lifts<sup>1</sup> up my<sup>1</sup> head * above my<sup>1</sup> enemies<sup>1</sup> round a<sup>1</sup> bout me.
- 9 Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with<sup>1</sup> sounds<sup>1</sup> of great<sup>1</sup> gladness; *
I will sing and make<sup>1</sup> music<sup>1</sup> to the<sup>1</sup> LORD.
- 10 Harken to my voice, O<sup>1</sup> LORD, when I<sup>1</sup> call; * have<sup>1</sup> mercy<sup>1</sup> on<sup>1</sup> me and<sup>1</sup> answer me.
- 11 You speak in my heart and say,<sup>1</sup> "Seek my<sup>1</sup> face," *

Second Lesson: Philippians 3:17-4:1

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 653 "Dear Lord and Father of mankind"

Gospel: Luke 13:31-35

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Some Pharisees came and said to Jesus, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." He said to them, "Go and tell that fox for me, 'Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed outside of Jerusalem.'

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

St. Patrick

390–461

St. Patrick was born Maewyn Succat to a Christian family on the northwest coast of Britain in 390. His grandfather was a Christian priest and his father, Calpornius, was a deacon. He was kidnapped at the age of 16 by an Irish raiding party and trafficked across the Irish Sea into slavery. When he was 21, he escaped and returned to his family and his studies in Britain. He tells us that he took holy orders as both presbyter and bishop. A vision then called him to return to Ireland. This he did about the year 431. He then began a remarkable process of missionary conversion throughout the country that continued until his death, in 461. He made his appeal to the local kings and through them to their tribes. Christianizing the old pagan religion as he went, Patrick erected Christian churches over sites already regarded as sacred, had crosses carved on old druidic pillars, and put sacred wells and springs under the protection of Christian saints. He left two written documents: his Confessions, a spiritual autobiography from which many of the details of his life are known; and his Letter to the Soldiers of Coroticus, a furious protest against the murder and enslavement of members of Patrick's congregation by a raiding party of pirates probably composed of Patrick's fellow Britons. The anger of this protest was doubtless further sharpened by Patrick's own bitter memory of the violence of slavery. St. Patrick's breastplate ("I bind unto myself today") is probably not his, but it expresses his faith and zeal. The prayer is reasonably dated to the 8th Century and the first two parts of this prayer follow below.

His feast day is March 17.

I bind to myself today, The strong power of the invocation of the Trinity: The faith of the Trinity in the Unity, The Creator of the elements. I bind to myself today, The power of the Incarnation of Christ, with that of his Baptism, The power of the Crucifixion with that of his Burial, The power of the Resurrection, with the Ascension, The power of the coming of the Sentence of Judgement.

Laetare Sunday

Sunday, March 30, the fourth Sunday of Lent, is known as Laetare Sunday. The word Laetare comes from the traditional introit for the day which begins, "Laetare Jerusalem" which means "Rejoice Jerusalem." Today, the clergy will be wearing the rose array. Other names for the day are Refreshment Sunday, Mothering Sunday, mid-Lent Sunday, or Rose Sunday. Traditionally, this was a Sunday when people would return to their mother church where they received the sacrament of baptism.
