Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Lesson: Daniel 7:1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm

1 Hallelujah!

Sing to the LORD a'nēw'song; *

sing his praise in the congrega'tion of the'faithful.

2 Let Israel re'joice in his'Maker; *

let the children of Zion be'joyful in their'King.

3 Let them praise his'Name in the'dance; *

let them sing'praise to him with'timbrel and'harp.

4 For the LORD takes'pleasure in his'people *

and a'dorns the'poor with'victory.

5 Let the faithful re'joice in'triumph; *

let them be'joyful on their'beds.

6 Let the praises of'God be in their'throat *

and a'two-edged'sword in their'hand;

7 To wreak'vengeance on the'nations *

and'punishment on the'peoples;

8 To bind their'kings in'chains *

and their'nobles with'links of'iron;

We too have been chosen to follow the way of goodness and truth in our study and play, we raise up our song, living saints here below with heavenly saints as our praise ever flows.

Gospel: Luke 6:20-31

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:
"Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.
Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, re-vile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you."

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Communion

Presentation of Bread and Wine

Offertory Anthem Festival Te Deum

Benjamin Britten (1913-1976)

*We praise Thee, O God: we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee: the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud: the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim: continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the majesty: of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles: praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs: praise Thee.
The Holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge Thee;
The Father: of an infinite majesty;
Thine honourable, true: and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost: the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man: Thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father,
We believe that Thou shalt come: to be our judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants: Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints: in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people: and bless Thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up for ever.
Day by day: we magnify Thee;
and we worship Thy name: ever world without end.
Vouchsafe O Lord to keep us this day without sin,
O Lord have mercy upon us, O Lord let Thy mercy lighten upon us,
As our trust is in Thee.
O Lord in Thee have I trusted
let me never be confounded.*

Icon of the Week

All Saints

All Saints' Day is one of the seven principal feasts of the church year and commemorates all saints, known and unknown, on November 1. The icons for this feast developed from the ninth century onwards and have not varied much. At first the icon was for martyrs, then saints, and then righteous were added to the icon.

This feast expanded, stressing that the number of saints is unlimited. In the lower third of the icon, the center point represents Paradise with its abundance of trees and hills. Abraham, in the lower left corner, carries a boy in white clothing, a symbol of his purity and the souls of the righteous saints. In the corner to the right, Jacob is holding the "Twelve Tribes" in a cloth. In the central part of the icon is the great "cloud of witnesses" mentioned by St. Paul in his letter to the Hebrews (11:33-12:2). The saints are gathered around Christ, who is seated in the middle. Jesus is shown in his pre-eternal glory, with the Father and the Holy Spirit. The Virgin Mary is to the right of Jesus, with St. John the Baptist to his left. They stand in intercession. Four creatures surround the Lord Jesus Christ. They symbolize the four evangelists: Matthew: a humanlike angel (because he spoke on the Son of Man); Mark: a lion, for the fact that his Gospel begins with "a voice of one crying in the wilderness" like the roaring of lions; Luke: the bull for mentioning Zacharias the priest, who made a sacrifice on the altar. This is a symbol of the cross. John: the eagle, who soared into theology, and spoke about Christ in great theological depth.

Above the Lord is the Throne of Preparation before which Adam and Eve prostrate themselves. The Cross is behind them, and the Gospel is set before them on the Holy Table. The saints themselves are gathered into ranks according to their "type": martyrs, ascetics, holy fathers, apostles, and so on. In the top left corner of the icon is King David and King Solomon is in the top right.

Gathering of Saints and Souls

Join us this evening, November 2, at 5pm for a family-oriented intergenerational sacred service of remembrance weaving together the traditions of All Hallows’ Eve, All Saints, and All Souls. Through prayer, candle lighting, hymns, and the naming of the departed, we will honor the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us. Bring a photo or memory of someone you wish to honor. At 5:45pm, we’ll continue with a shared meal, during which we will learn about Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), a tradition observed in many Latin communities. Together we will share stories, reflect on the communion of saints, and give thanks that love endures beyond death.

9am Adult Christian Learning

Do you know a saint? Today, November 2, join us for Modern Saints Near & Far, led by Rev. Margaret Schwarzer. Join us Sunday, November 9, for Inside Prison Walls: Healing & Hope. The Door at 79 Denton Road

We have installed a new doorbell and access pass system on the door at the administrative entrance to the church. The door will be always be locked with scheduled openings for services, meetings, and other gatherings. We will be issuing phone access passes to those who frequent the church for volunteer work in the building. Please email Kate if you think you need a pass.

College/Gap Year Care Packages

Sending college (and post-secondary school) packages is a tradition at St. Andrew's. Each year we send packages to 12 Wily Scholars and to parishioners who have graduated from high school. Wily Scholars are college students who have largely grown up in the foster care system and are now in college. The Wily Network helps support these students so they have all that they need to get through four years of college. Use the link in the e-Pistle to contribute needed items by Thursday, November 13. Contact Joy Denomme or Sarah Robbins-Cole for more information.

Soul Sisters

Our next meeting of Soul Sisters will be on Tuesday, November 11, at 6pm. This will be a social evening, with a brief program on the importance of gathering. For those who'd like to explore the theme further, the optional reading is The Art of Gathering by Priya Parker, and the optional viewing is her TED Talk, 3 Steps to Turn Everyday Get-Togethers into Transformative Gatherings.

Open Bible Study

Open Bible Study meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 11am and on the second Wednesday of each month at 7 pm. On Tuesday, November 11, and on Wednesday, November 12, we consider Exodus 2:23-25 and Chapter 3. No preparation is needed; we read and reflect together. Come to the Harvey Room or join us online; the Zoom link is in the e-Pistle. — Margaret Schwarzer

Wellesley Turkey Trot 2025

Join our team! We trot on Thanksgiving morning at 8am! Note: When you go to race-wire.com, sign up for "join a team" and join the "St. Andrew's" team! The money we pay as a 5K registration fee will go to local charities, and we will have the chance to meet before the race, snap a picture, and wish each other a Happy Thanksgiving. — Margaret Schwarzer

Feeding Ministry

Feeding others is often the heart of Christian ministry. Are you interested in occasional outreach cooking efforts? Like to chat with fellow parishioners while doing actions to benefit others? Our feeding ministry is for you! We are making a list of people who would like to come together at St. Andrew's occasionally to make a meal for one of our outreach partner organizations. No expertise required! We would do this when it is convenient for us—could be evenings, weekends or weekdays. Please email Cam McCormick.
