The Word of God

Opening Acclamation

Book of Common Prayer p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's Kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

BCP p. 355

S 236 Benedictus es, Domine (front section of hymnal)

John Rutter (b. 1945)

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; you are worthy of praise; glory to you.

Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name;

we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

Glory to you seated between the Cherubim; we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you, beholding the depths; In the high vault of heaven, glory to you.

Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; we will praise you and highly exalt you forever. Glory to you!

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray,

People Set us free, O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Isaiah 58:1-9a

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 Hallelujah!

Happy are they who 'fear the 'LORD *
and have great de'light in 'his com'mandments!

2 Their descendants will be 'mighty in the 'land; *
the generation of the 'upright will be 'blessed.

3 Wealth and riches will 'be in their 'house, *
and their 'righteousness will 'last for 'ever.

4 Light shines in the 'darkness for the 'upright; *
the righteous are 'merciful and 'full of com'passion.

5 It is good for them to be 'generous in 'lending *
and to 'manage their af'fairs with 'justice.

6 For they will 'never be 'shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in 'ever'lasting re'membrance.

7 They will not be afraid of any 'evil 'rumors; *
their heart is right;
they 'put their 'trust in the 'Lord.

8 Their heart is established and 'will not 'shrink, *
until they see their de'sire up'on their 'enemies.

† 9 They have given 'freely to the 'poor, *
and their righteousness stands fast for ever;
they will 'hold up their 'head with 'honor.

Second Lesson: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written,

"What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him" —

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 7 "Christ, whose glory fills the skies"

Ratisbon

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

Clergy      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot.

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Offertory Anthem "He shall feed his flock" from Messiah

G.F. Handel (1685-1759)

*He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; and He shall gather the lambs with His arm, and carry them in His bosom, and gently lead
those that are with young. (Isaiah 40: 11)*

*Come unto Him, all ye that labour, come unto Him that are heavy laden, and He will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, and learn of Him, for He is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
(Matthew 11: 28-29)*

Doxology Hymn 380 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"

Old 100th

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

St. Cecilia

180–230 AD

Cecilia is the patron saint of singers, organ builders, musicians, and poets. She is venerated as a martyr. Many of the details of her life are unknown and much of what we do know comes from later periods. She is among the women named in the Roman Canon of the Mass. According to fifth century sources, Cecilia was of noble birth and was betrothed to a pagan called Valerian. Cecilia's witness resulted in the conversion of Valerian and his brother Tiburtius, who were then martyred. While burying them, Cecilia was arrested. After withstanding several attempts on her life by her captors, she died from her injuries. Her martyrdom is generally believed to have occurred around 230, during the Roman persecution of Christians.

Remembered for the passion with which she sang the praises of God, Cecilia is first depicted in Christian art as a martyr, but since the 14th century, she is often shown playing the organ. Her story has inspired centuries of artistic representations; there are over 2,000 known works of art depicting St. Cecilia, including paintings, sculptures, stained glass windows, operas, poems, and novels. Composers such as Handel, Purcell, Howells, and Britten have written choral works and mass settings in her honor. Her story reminds us of the power of music and art to transcend suffering, to focus on beauty, and to connect us with God.

Her feast day is November 22.

Most gracious God, whose blessed martyr Cecilia sang in her heart to strengthen her witness to you: We give you thanks for the makers of music whom you have gifted with Pentecostal fire; and we pray that we may join with them in creation's song of praise until at the last, with Cecilia and all your saints, we come to share in the song of those redeemed by our Savior Jesus Christ; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Our Lenten Book Prayer in the Night

This Lent, we will read Prayer in the Night by Tish Harrison Warren. The book won the ECPA Christian Book of the Year in 2022. She asks, "How can we trust God in the dark?" Facing fears and practicing prayer are central themes. The book is $19.50 with our Wellesley Books discount. Tell Margaret you want it via email, send her a check made out to St. Andrew's with "Lenten Book" in the memo, and she will send you an email to confirm that it is waiting at the bookstore for you. —Margaret Schwarzer

Mealpacking Event

We are excited to announce the return of the community wide Lenten service event, mealpacking! This high-energy, impactful event will be

Sunday, March 15, 2026, in the parish hall. Everyone can join us between the first and second church services (8:45 to 9:50am), then the church school youth and teachers will have a dedicated packing time from 9:55 to 10:55am. You remember how much fun you had the last four times we did this, so register your spot now! Click the QR code, log into Realm, or contact Nancy Jones (617-538-8488) or Cam McCormick (617-584-9434).

Retirement Gift, Kate Clark

We are collecting a purse for Kate Clark on her retirement from St. Andrew's. Kate has served the parish in the key role of parish administrator for the last seventeen years and has made a huge contribution to the life of St. Andrew's and to individual parishioners. We hope you will give generously to Kate's purse in thanks for all she has done for us. The purse will be presented to Kate before Easter (April 5). You can give online through the giving page on the St. Andrew's website, please put "Kate's retirement" in the memo line. You can also give by check made out to St. Andrew's with "Kate's retirement" in the memo line.
