ST. ANDREW'S
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

St. Andrew's is dedicated to supporting your spiritual life. Spirituality is how we are in relationship to God, to other people, to the world around us, and to ourselves.

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
October 25, 2026

We are livestreaming the 10am service.

Prelude Improvisation on the name "Alain"

Processional Hymn 688 "A mighty fortress is our God" Ein feste Burg

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation Book of Common Prayer p. 355

Clergy Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity BCP p. 355

S 280 Gloria in excelsis (front section of hymnal) Robert Powell (1932-2025)

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Clergy Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Deuteronomy 34:1-12

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants'; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there." Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord's command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Psalm 90:1-6, 13-17

Simplified Anglican Chant
Robert Knox Kennedy (b. 1945)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

1 Lord, you have been our / refuge *
from one generation to a- / nother.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were / born, *
from age to age you are / God.

3 You turn us back to the dust and / say, *
"Go back O child of / earth."

4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is / past * and like a watch in the / night.

5 You sweep us away like a / dream; *
we fade away suddenly like the / grass.

6 In the morning it is green and / flourishes; *
in the evening it is dried up and / withered.

13 Return, O LORD; how long will you / tarry? *
be gracious to your / servants.

14 Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the / morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our / life.

15 Make us glad by the measure of the days that you af- / flicted us * and the years in which we suffered ad- / versity.

16 Show your servants your / works *
and your splendor to their / children.

†17 May the graciousness of the LORD our God be up- / on us; *
prosper the work of our hands;
prosper our / handiwork.

Second Lesson: 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Gradual Hymn 559 "Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us" Dulce carmen

Gospel: Matthew 22: 34-46

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Offertory Anthem Lord, Let Me Know Mine End — Maurice Greene (1696-1755)

Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my days, that I may be certified how long I have to live.
Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long,
and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee;
And verily every man living is altogether vanity.
For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain;
he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly my hope is even in thee.
Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears consider my calling;
hold not thy peace at my tears.
O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength,
before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Doxology Hymn 380 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow" Old 100th

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Teresa of Avila

1515-82

Saint Teresa of Ávila, born Teresa de Cepeda y Ahumada, was a Spanish Carmelite nun, mystic, and saint. After entering a convent around the age of 20, she fell seriously ill. She underwent a religious awakening in 1555 and, despite her frail health, initiated the Carmelite Reform, leading the order's return to its original austere practices, including poverty and seclusion from the world. Against some opposition, she opened new convents (the first in 1562) under the reformed order throughout Spain. St. John of the Cross joined her in her efforts, establishing reformed Carmelite monasteries. Her doctrines have been accepted as the classical exposition of the contemplative life, and her spiritual writings are still widely read today, among them The Interior Castle and The Way of Perfection. In 1970 she became the first woman elevated to the position of Doctor of the Church.

Among her beliefs she said, "Mental prayer in my opinion is nothing else than an intimate sharing between friends; it means taking time frequently to be alone with Him who we know loves us. The important thing is not to think much but to love much and so do that which best stirs you to love. Love is not great delight but desire to please God in everything." Her last words were, "O my Lord! Now is the time we may see each other."

Her feast day is October 15.

O God, by your Holy Spirit you moved Teresa of Avila to manifest to your Church the way of perfection: Grant us, we pray, to be nourished by her excellent teaching, and enkindle within us a keen and unquenchable longing for true holiness; through Jesus Christ, the joy of loving hearts, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Wellesley Turkey Trot

Come join St. Andrew's Team! You are invited to be a part of our St. Andrew's Turkey Trot team this year. Last year, 70 of us between the ages of 5-80 ran; let's do it again!

Please go to the Wellesley Turkey Trot website. When it asks you if you want to join a team, click "yes" and then find us —"St. Andrew's" in the list of teams running. (This is a popular race, and it sells out in October every year; we encourage you to sign up soon.) Scan QR code to sign up. —Margaret Schwarzer

Water Table at the Turkey Trot Race

The Dubé family has been staffing our Turkey Trot water table for the past five years, but they can't do it this year. Is there a volunteer or volunteer family to: set up a St. Andrew's folding table, get big plastic water urns from the church, fill them, and hand out a few hundred little paper cups full of water at the one mile mark (across the street from our parking lot)? Homemade signs ready to hang up on the table, too. Please reach out to Margaret Schwarzer.

Children and Youth

Please see previous announcements for any intergenerational information.
