Prelude Prélude sur le nom d'Alain Maurice Duruflé (1902-1986)

Processional Hymn 287 "For all the saints" Sine Nomine

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation Book of Common Prayer p. 299

Clergy Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

Clergy There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Clergy One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

Clergy The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Collect of the Day

Clergy Together we pray.

People Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Lesson: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10,22

Anglican Chant
Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

Today's psalm is sung by the choir.

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
  his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the LORD; *
  let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
  let us exalt his Name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
  and delivered me out of all my terror.

5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
  and let not your faces be ashamed.

6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
  and saved me from all my troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
  and he will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
  happy are they who trust in him!

9 Fear the LORD, you that are his saints, *
  for those who fear him lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
  but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.

22 The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
  and none will be punished who trust in him.

Second Lesson: 1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Gradual Hymn 286 "Who are these" Zeuch mich, zeuch mich

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Icon of the Week

All Saints

All Saints' Day is one of the seven principal feasts of the church year and commemorates all saints, known and unknown, on November 1. The icons for this feast developed from the ninth-century onwards and have not varied much. At first the icon was for martyrs, then saints, and then righteous were added to the icon. This feast expanded, stressing that the number of saints is unlimited. In the lower third of the icon, the center point represents Paradise with its abundance of trees and hills. Abraham, in the lower left corner, carries a boy in white clothing, a symbol of his purity and the souls of the righteous saints. In the corner to the right, Jacob is holding the "Twelve Tribes" in a cloth. In the central part of the icon is the great "cloud of witnesses" mentioned by St. Paul in his letter to the Hebrews (11:33-12:2). The saints are gathered around Christ, who is seated in the middle. Jesus is shown in his pre-eternal glory, with the Father and the Holy Spirit. The Virgin Mary is to the right of Jesus, with St. John the Baptist to his left. They stand in intercession. Four creatures surround the Lord Jesus Christ. They symbolize the four evangelists: Matthew: a humanlike angel (because he spoke on the Son of Man); Mark: a lion, for the fact that his Gospel begins with "a voice of one crying in the wilderness" like the roaring of lions; Luke: the bull for mentioning Zacharias the priest, who made a sacrifice on the altar. This is a symbol of the cross. John: the eagle, who soared into theology, and spoke about Christ in great theological depth. Above the Lord is the Throne of Preparation before which Adam and Eve prostrate themselves. The Cross is behind them, and the Gospel is set before them on the Holy Table. The saints themselves are gathered into ranks according to their "type": martyrs, ascetics, holy fathers, apostles, and so on. In the top left corner of the icon is King David and King Solomon is in the top right.

Commitment Sunday!

Today is Commitment Sunday for St. Andrew's 2027 Stewardship Campaign. Our theme "Here I Am!" reminds us that each of us has a part to play in the life and mission of the parish. Together, we proclaim, "Here We Are!"—a welcoming, caring, faithful community committed to serving God and one another. To all who have already made their 2027 pledge, thank you! Your generosity and commitment help sustain the worship, ministries, and fellowship that make St. Andrew's such a special place. If you have not yet submitted your pledge, we invite you to do so. Every pledge, whatever its size, makes a difference and helps our vestry plan confidently for the year ahead. Help us reach our pledge goal of 300 pledges. Together, we ensure that St. Andrew's continues to be a vibrant and welcoming spiritual home for all. —David Guydan

St. Andrew's Choristers

We are seeking an adult volunteer to attend Chorister rehearsals on Thursdays from 5pm to 6pm. Safe Church guidelines require two adults to be present with children. No musical participation is required—just your presence. If you can help, please contact Andrew Sheranian or Sarah Robbins-Cole.

Water Table at the Turkey Trot Race

The Dubé family has been staffing our Turkey Trot water table for the past five years, but they can't do it this year. Is there a volunteer or volunteer family to: set up a St. Andrew's folding table, get big plastic water urns from the church, fill them, and hand out a few hundred little paper cups full of water at the one mile mark (across the street from our parking lot)? Homemade signs ready to hang up on the table, too. Please reach out to Margaret Schwarzer.

Gifts of Love: Thanksgiving Meals

It is our long holiday tradition to donate Thanksgiving meal kits to families at our sister parish, St. Stephen's in Boston, and their youth programs. We will deliver 100 kits with either a turkey or equivalent gift card, plus a bag of fixings (rice, beans, cranberry sauce, etc., and fresh veggies). Help this effort through your generous donation (use the Holiday Dinners envelopes in the pews, or via Realm with "Holiday Dinners" in the memo), and by coming downstairs after the November 22 10am service to help pack bags for delivery!

Donated funds also support our Christmas gift bags for St. Stephen's seniors, which include warm items made by our busy Knitters, and homemade cookies. Any excess funds will be donated to local food pantries! Thanks!

—Herb Manning

Clarifying Notes on Payments and Pledges

- Checks Please indicate the intended use of your gift in the memo line of your check so it can be credited appropriately.
- Stock Gifts If you are donating stock, please email me the name of the stock and the number of shares. We have already received two stock gifts for which we have been unable to identify the donors.
- Monthly Payments and 2027 Pledges If you have set up a monthly payment through Realm using +Give and then Recurring Payment but have not yet entered your pledge, please use the +Pledge tab to register your 2027 pledge or email me your pledge amount. Realm does not notify us of recurring payments until they occur, so we will not know your giving intentions until the payments begin in January. Music Note

St. Andrew's Choristers

Today marks an exciting milestone for the St. Andrew's Choristers as they help lead worship for the first time! For nearly two months, our young singers have rehearsed with enthusiasm and dedication to prepare the music for this morning's service. Today they take an important step forward: rather than appearing as a special addition to worship, the Choristers are now fully integrated into the musical life of St. Andrew's, taking their place as members of the choir and joining singers of all ages in leading our congregation in worship. We celebrate their hard work and are delighted to welcome their voices to the choir!

Gratitude

Oktoberfest

A sincere thank you to everyone involved in helping to make the St. Andrew's Oktoberfest a big success! Thanks to your commitment, 80+ parishioners enjoyed festive music, food, and fellowship. Danke!
